d. Contractual requirement

Your personal data is required by law and for contractual requirement. You are obliged to provide the personal data, however, if you choose not to do so, we will not be able to offer you any assignments.

e. Photograph

We would like to use a photograph on your file for internal use only to aid communication processes.

2. Data retention

The Company will only retain your personal data for as long as is necessary. Different laws require us to keep different data for different periods of time.

The Conduct of Employment Agencies and Employment Businesses Regulations 2003, require us to keep work-seeker records for at least one year after the date on which we last provide you with work-finding services.

We must also keep your payroll records, holiday pay, sick pay and pension's auto-enrolment records for as long as is legally required by HMRC and associated national minimum wage, social security and tax legislation.

Where the Company has obtained your consent to process your personal data, we will do so in line with our retention policy (a copy of which is attached).

3. Your rights

Please be aware that you have the following data protection rights:

- The right to be informed about the personal data the Company processes on you;
- The right of access to the personal data the Company processes on you;
- The right to rectification of your personal data;
- The right to erasure of your personal data in certain circumstances;
- The right to restrict processing of your personal data;
- The right to object to the processing of your personal data that was based on a public or legitimate interest;
- The right not to be subjected to automated decision making and profiling; and
- The right to withdraw consent at any time.

Where you have consented to the Company processing your personal data you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time by contacting Julia Rolfe, Unique Specialist Recruitment Ltd, 5 Castle Street, Luton, Bedfordshire, LU1 3AA Julia@unique-employment.co.uk
